1. Submit an original "Verification of Graduation" form (contained in this application). Request that a school official complete the form and return it to you in a sealed envelope to submit with your application and fees.

If you have graduated with a minimum of 600 hours from a recognized electrology in a state other than Utah:

1. Submit your completed application and fees, including the following:
2. Using the "Request for Verification of License" form (contained in this application), obtain verification of licensure from a state in which you are currently licensed as an electrologist. Request that the verifying state complete the form and mail it directly to DOPL. Indicate that a verifying state is submitting the verification.
3. Submit official documentation, verifying your passing score on a national electrologist practical examination or another state's electrologist practical examination. . If this information is included on the verification of licensure from a state in which you are currently licensed, no additional documentation is required.
4. Submit official documentation, verifying your passing score on a national electrologist theory examination or another state's electrologist theory examination. If this information is included on the verification of licensure from a state in which you are currently licensed, no additional documentation is required.

If you are a graduate of a foreign electrology school:

1. Submit a credential evaluation from one of the approved credentialing services listed in this application. Note: All foreign applicants must have this evaluation completed prior to making application for licensure in Utah.
2. Submit the original letter from DOPL's approved examination provider verifying your passing score on the Utah Electrologist Practical Examination within the period of one year prior to the date of application.
3. Submit the original letter from DOPL's approved examination provider verifying your passing score on the Utah Electrologist Theory Examination within the period of one year prior to the date of application.

Submit the $60.00 non-refundable application-processing fee for a electrology license, made payable to "DOPL."

ADDITIONAL IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

1. Statutes and Rules/Current Documents: Applications, statutes, rules, and forms are occasionally changed. The most recent version of these documents are available at www.dopl.utah.gov/licensing/cosmetology_barbering.html.
2. License Renewal: All electrologist licenses expire on September 30 of odd-numbered years. Utah's license renewal schedule is not based on the licensee's date of initial licensure. Each licensee is responsible to renew licensure PRIOR to the expiration date shown on the current license.
3. PSI Examination Services: Applicants must apply directly to PSI Examination Services at www.psiexams.com or 1-800-733-9267 to register for the Utah Electrologist Theory and the Utah Electrologist Practical. Submit the fees directly to the testing agency.
4. NIC Examinations: National examinations for electrologists are developed and administered by the National Interstate Council of State Boards of Cosmetology: 954-389-5302 or www.nictesting.org. The NIC Theory Examination is accepted by the state of Utah, if taken in another state.
5. Temporary Licenses: Temporary licenses are not issued.
6. Foreign Education: Applicants who have graduated from a foreign school must have an approved credential evaluation service evaluate their education documents prior to making application for licensure in Utah.

7. Approved credentialing evaluation services for licensure are:
